

Hollywood Hills Home

8306 W Yucca Trail, Los Angeles, CA 90046

This unique home is nestled in the Hollywood Hills within the iconic Laurel Canyon neighborhood. Each of the three bedrooms is thoughtfully designed to offer a private retreat for every member of the household.

The guest house features an additional bedroom and bathroom, complete with a separate entrance and parking, offering the potential for rental income or serving as a secluded escape.

The 300 sq ft garage provides ample space for a studio, office, or game room while still accommodating a car. Just minutes from the Sunset Strip, this property is situated within the renowned Wonderland School District.

Barry Dane 310.309.0025

$2,250,000.

Exclusively Representing

architectureforsale.com[™]
International Marketplace For Architecture
in Southern California